Overview:

A map layer depicting Community Plan Implementation Overlay Zone ordinances, designations, and boundaries in the City of San Diego. Updates are applied to the layer when Community Plan Implementation Overlay Zone designations and boundaries are changed by rezone ordinances adopted by the City Council.

ZONENAME is the name applied to the geographic area(s) which comprise a specific type of zoning.

IMP_DATE is the date on which a zone change actually takes effect, or "implements."

ORDNUM is a unique alphanumeric value assigned by City Council to every new rezone ordinance. An ordinance number begins with the letter O ("ordinance"), followed by a unique five-digit number. This number increases by 1 with the issuance of each new ordinance. Following this number is the series code -- either OS ("old series") or NS ("new series"). Here is a sample ordinance number: O-19459 NS
